

October 6, 2017

Roxas Blvd Closed on 2nd Sunday of 2017 Bar Exams

The Supreme Court, through the Office of the Bar Confidant (OBC), today advised all Bar examinees traversing Roxas Boulevard to consider alternative routes on November 12, 2017, the second Sunday of the 2017 Bar Examinations, as it will be closed to vehicular traffic on that day to pave way for the security preparations for the opening of the 31st Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Summit.

The announcement was made following the traffic advisory given to the OBC by the Manila Police District (MPD).

The Bar Examinations will take place over the four Sundays of November at the Pontifical and Royal University of Santo Tomas in España, Manila.

Supreme Court Associate Justice Lucas P. Bersamin is chair of this year's Bar Examinations.