BAR BULLETIN NO. 6, S. 2022

THE DIGITALIZED EXAMINATIONS PROCESS
AND DATES OF THE 2022 BAR EXAMINATIONS

In light of the Supreme Court's continuous efforts towards a regionalized and digitalized platform for the conduct of the Bar Examinations, and following the success of the 2020/21 Bar Examinations, the Supreme Court will continue to use Exemplify, a secure examination delivery program, for the 2022 Bar Examinations, during which the examinees will use their own devices in their preferred venue, monitored by in-person proctors and closed-circuit television cameras in the exam rooms.

Access to the computer-based testing software will be available to all Bar Examinations applicants approved to take the 2022 Bar Examinations, whether conditional or unconditional. Approved applicants are advised to periodically monitor their Bar PLUS-registered email and Bar PLUS accounts for the list of conditionally or unconditionally approved applicants.

The instructions on how to use and navigate Exemplify will be announced in a separate bulletin, which will include Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding the process of registration, access, and use of the program, the recommended system requirements for the examinees' devices, as well as the list of allowable accessories and peripherals.

Finally, except for unforeseen circumstances and contingencies which may necessitate a rescheduling of dates, the 2022 Bar Examinations will be held on November 9 (Wednesday), 13 (Sunday), 16 (Wednesday) and 20 (Sunday), 2022. Details pertaining to the exam venue selections will be announced in a later bulletin.

For your information and guidance.
