Re: Clinical Legal Education Program (CLEP)

WHEREAS, Section 5 (5), Article VIII of the 1987 Constitution provides that the Supreme Court has the power to adopt and promulgate rules concerning the protection and enforcement of constitutional rights, pleading, practice and procedure in all courts, the admission to the practice of law, the Integrated Bar, and legal assistance to the underprivileged;

WHEREAS, the Court has approved the proposed Rule 138-A on Law Student Practice and on 23 July 2019 the Supreme Court, En Banc adopted and amended the following provisions of Rule 138-A, or the Law Student Practice Rule as well as amendment of Section 5, Rule 138, to read:

RULE 138 ATTORNEYS AND ADMISSION TO THE BAR

SEC. 5. Additional requirements for other applicants. - All applicants for admission other than those referred to in the two preceding sections, shall before being admitted to the examination, satisfactorily show that they have successfully completed all the prescribed courses for the degree of Bachelor of Laws or its equivalent degree, in a law school or university officially recognized by the Philippine Government or by the proper authority in the foreign jurisdiction where the degree has been granted.

No applicant who obtained the Bachelor of Laws degree in this jurisdiction shall be admitted to the bar examination unless he or she has satisfactorily completed the following course in a law school or university duly recognized by the government: civil law, commercial law, remedial law, criminal law, public and private international law, political law, labor and social legislation medical jurisprudence, taxation, legal ethics and clinical legal education program(Emphasis and Underscoring Supplied).

A Filipino citizen who graduated from a foreign law school shall be admitted to the bar examination only upon submission to the Supreme Court of certifications showing: (a) completion of all courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws or its equivalent degree; (b) recognition or accreditation of the law school by the proper authority; and (c) completion of all the fourth year subjects in the Bachelor of Laws academic program in a law school duly recognized by the Philippine Government. (As amended by B.M. No. 1153, March 09, 2010)

This amendment shall apply to the bar examination applicants commencing the 2023 bar examinations.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Resolution dated 04 October 2022, the Court directed the Office of the Bar Confidant (OBC) for the issuance of relevant guidelines clarifying the CLEP requirement for purposes of taking the 2023 Bar examinations.

NOW THEREFORE, the Office of the Bar Confidant hereby proposes the following guidelines:

PROPOSED GUIDELINES RE: CLINICAL LEGAL EDUCATION
