NOTICE TO THE 2024 BAR EXAMINEES

RE: EXTENDED DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF DEFERRED DOCUMENTS

Following the suspension of work at the Supreme Court due to the opening of the 10th Session of the Asia Pacific Ministerial Conference on Disaster Risk Reduction from October 14 to 15, 2024, the deadline for submission of deferred documents has been moved to October 16, 2024 (Wednesday).

However, examinees who wish to submit the physical copies of their deferred documents today, October 15, 2024, may do so by dropping them in the designated dropbox located at One-Stop Shop, Window 4, Supreme Court New Building.

Please be advised that the processing of deferred documents is ongoing and is independent of the extended submission deadline. Examinees who have uploaded or submitted their documents should allow time for processing, as this will continue past the deadline.

For the list of deferred documents required per examinee type, please refer to Bar Bulletin No. 2, Series of 2024, and the advisory dated May 23, 2024, released by the Office of the 2024 Bar Chairperson and the Office of the Bar Confidant (OBC). Please also refer to the instructions for uploading and submission of the deferred documents as stated in the OBC Notice dated September 24, 2024. Kindly note that failure to comply with the submission of these documents will result in disqualification, and the examination answers of non-compliant examinees will not be checked.

For any inquiries, please contact the OBC via its Helpdesk at <https://bit.ly/2024BarExamsHelpdesk> or call (02) 8552-9690.
